MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Adopted: October 3, 2003 Released: October 3, 2003

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Memorandum Opinion and Order, issued pursuant to Section 0.111(a)(7) of the Commission's rules,<sup>2</sup> we deny complaints received from the Parents Television Council and from certain individuals who have alleged that various television station licensees aired program material during the "Golden Globe Awards" program on January 19, 2003, that violates the federal restrictions regarding the broadcast of obscene and indecent material.<sup>3</sup>

II. BACKGROUND

2. The complainants allege that the licensees named in their respective complaints aired the "Golden Globe Awards" program, during which the performer Bono uttered the phrase "this is really, really, fucking brilliant," or "this is fucking great." The complainants contend

&lt;sup>1</sup> This Order denies 234 complaints that the Commission received concerning broadcasts of this program. Of these, 217 were from individuals associated with Parents Television Council. See, e.g., postcard complaint against Multimedia Entertainment, Inc., licensee of Station WGRZ-TV, Buffalo, New York, from Marsha A. Ashton to Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division, Enforcement Bureau. The Commission received multiple complaints concerning some of the stations that aired the material at issue. A list of the stations and licensees that are the subject of the complaints is provided as an appendix to this Order.

that such material is either obscene and/or indecent, and they request that the Commission levy sanctions against the licensees for the broadcast of the subject material.

III. DISCUSSION

3. The Federal Communications Commission is authorized to license radio and television broadcast stations and is responsible for enforcing the Commission's rules and applicable statutory provisions concerning the operation of those stations. The Commission's role in overseeing program content is very limited. The First Amendment to the United States Constitution and section 326 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, (the "Act") prohibit the Commission from censoring program material and from interfering with broadcasters' freedom of expression. 5 The Commission does, however, have the authority to enforce statutory and regulatory provisions restricting indecency and obscenity. Specifically, it is a violation of federal law to broadcast obscene or indecent programming. Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 1464 prohibits the utterance of "any obscene, indecent or profane language by means of radio communication." 6 In addition, section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules provides that radio and television stations shall not broadcast obscene material at any time, and shall not broadcast indecent material during the period 6 a.m. through 10 p.m.<sup>7</sup> The Commission may impose a monetary forfeiture, pursuant to Section 503(b)(1) of the Act, upon a finding that a licensee has broadcast indecent material in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1464 and section 73.3999 of the rules.

A. Indecency Analysis

4. Any consideration of government action against allegedly indecent programming must take into account the fact that such speech is protected under the First Amendment. The federal courts consistently have upheld Congress's authority to regulate the broadcast of indecent speech, as well the Commission's interpretation and implementation of the governing statute. Nevertheless, the First Amendment is a critical constitutional limitation that demands that, in indecency determinations, we proceed cautiously and with appropriate restraint.

&lt;sup>11</sup> ACT I, 852 F.2d at 1344 ("Broadcast material that is indecent but not obscene is protected by the First Amendment; the FCC may regulate such material only with due respect for the high value our Constitution places on freedom and choice in what people may say and hear.") See also United States v. Playboy Entertainment Group, Inc., 529 U.S. 803, 813-15 (2000).

5. The Commission defines indecent speech as language that, in context, <sup>12</sup> depicts or describes sexual or excretory activities or organs in terms patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium. <sup>13</sup>

Indecency findings involve at least two fundamental determinations. First, the material alleged to be indecent must fall within the subject matter scope of our indecency definition—that is, the material must describe or depict sexual or excretory organs or activities. . . . Second, the broadcast must be patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium. <sup>14</sup>

As a threshold matter, the material aired during the "Golden Globe Awards" program does not describe or depict sexual and excretory activities and organs. The word "fucking" may be crude and offensive, but, in the context presented here, did not describe sexual or excretory organs or activities. Rather, the performer used the word "fucking" as an adjective or expletive to emphasize an exclamation. Indeed, in similar circumstances, we have found that offensive language used as an insult rather than as a description of sexual or excretory activity or organs is not within the scope of the Commission's prohibition of indecent program content.<sup>15</sup>

6. Moreover, we have previously found that fleeting and isolated remarks of this nature do not warrant Commission action.<sup>16</sup> Thus, because the complained-of material does not fall within the scope of the Commission's indecency prohibition, we reject the claims that this program content is indecent, and we need not reach the second element of the indecency analysis.

B. Obscenity Analysis

 $<sup>^{15}</sup>$  Id. See, e.g., Entercom Buffalo License, LLC (WGR(AM)), 17 FCC Rcd 11997, 11999-12000 ¶¶ 7, 9-10 (EB 2002). See also, Peter Branton, 6 FCC Rcd at 610.

&lt;sup>16</sup> See, e.g., L.M. Communications of South Carolina, Inc. (WYBB(FM)), 7 FCC Rcd 1595 (MMB 1992)(a fleeting and isolated utterance ("[t]he hell I did, I drove the mother-fucker...") within the context of live and spontaneous programming not actionable). See also Industry Guidance On the Commission's Case Law Interpreting 18 U.S.C. § 1464 and Enforcement Policies Regarding Broadcast Indecency, 16 FCC Rcd 7999, 8008-09 ¶18 (2001).

6. To be obscene, material must meet a three-prong test: (1) the average person, applying contemporary community standards, must find that the material, as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest; (2) the material must depict or describe, in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct specifically defined by applicable law; and (3) the material, taken as a whole, must lack serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.<sup>17</sup> Applying that test, we find that the material broadcast during the "Golden Globe Awards" program was not obscene. The use of specific words, including expletives or other "four letter words" does not render material obscene.<sup>18</sup> Moreover, the complained-of material does not depict or describe sexual conduct and thus does not meet the obscenity standard under Miller v. California.<sup>19</sup> Because the broadcast does not meet the obscenity standard under Miller, we deny the complaints alleging that the broadcast was obscene.

IV. CONCLUSION

7. In view of the foregoing, we conclude that the various licensees that aired the "Golden Globe Awards" program on January 19, 2003, did not violate the law, and, therefore, no action is warranted.

V. ORDERING CLAUSES

- 8. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to Section 0.111(a)(7) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.111(a)(7), that the complaints filed against the broadcasts of the "Golden Globe Awards" program on January 19, 2003, by the licensees listed in the attached appendix are hereby DENIED.
- 9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that a copy of this Memorandum Opinion and Order shall be sent by Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested to The Parents Television Council, 707 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90017.
